IT Careers Meet n' Greet in your City!

We're looking for interested candidates to fill State of Missouri IT vacancies. No relocation needed for some positions - possibility of working mobile from your hometown!

Open to all interested IT candidates. If you are seeking full-time employment in the technology sector, particularly in the web, design and development fields, please join us for our IT Careers Meet n' Greet via a teleconference.

This informal event will allow you to meet key State of Missouri IT team members, including the CIO, IT client service managers, developers, and a human resource representative. You'll learn more about the State of Missouri as an employer and potential careers in its Information Technology Services Division (ITSD), and learn how you can officially apply for current or upcoming job opportunities. We hope to meet you soon!
